MUSICAL QUIZ EVENING

Featuring the Adderbury Ukulele Group
Saturday, 9th March. 7.30 p.m. at St Mary's House
£5.00 per person

You are invited to a quiz night with a difference. We have again invited the Adderbury Ukulele Group to entertain us but this time in combination with a musical quiz. They are an amateur group who play for fun and they will invite you to join in and sing along if you would like to.

We will be having a buffet supper with cold meat, cheese, salad etc. with crusty bread, followed by a selection of home-made puddings. There will be a limited quantity of wine but as usual you are free to bring along your favourite wine, beer or spirits to enjoy.

There will also be our usual raffle.

We hope as many of you as possible will be able to come along and hopefully have an enjoyable evening.

The Walk to Swalcliffe

Thank you to everyone who took part in either walking or meeting at the Stags Head in Swalcliffe. It turned out to be a nice bright day, albeit with a cold wind which deterred some! In all 19 people took part, some walking both ways, some only one way and some just meeting at the pub.

Tea, coffee and home-made macaroons were laid on and lunches were also available if required, which I think most people took advantage of. Also, maybe a tippie or two of Ouzo for some (no names mentioned).

Those who took part were Neil, Margaret, Pete, Roger, Richard, Alex, Maddie, Kelly, Felix and Sue who were met at the pub by Jane, Carol, Frances, Dot, Clive, Mary, Helen and also Haden and Amelia who walked back. Well done to all those who walked, especially those who walked both ways who were Neil, Margaret, Pete, Roger, and Sue. Not forgetting Alfie and Pebbles.
